Worshipful Masters Corner

The Worshipful Masters will be invited throughout the year to attend a formed "think tank" for bringing the district leaders (The Worshipful Masters) together in open discussion.

This forum can inspire everyone to an open dialogue of day-to-day lodge management with their fellow peers. They can discuss positive points that their respective lodges excel in, allowing good ideas to spread from lodge to lodge. It will also aid in receiving support or different points of view should there be a Master needing it. We will also bring news and updates from Grand Lodge should there be anything of importance to impart.

We would also encourage thoughts on what could be added to the district. The Worshipful Masters are our leaders; their views and comments will be most certainly welcomed.

The discussions will be facilitated by a committee, ready to assist where needed.
